

Mad

What made us mad?

Changing priorities

if not everyone is looking at the task in the beginning of the sprint, but at the end of it....

Sad

What made us sad?

not sure if the product is ready for the hackathon...

change proposals are not always met with an open mind more feedback expected from teams about the features

Glad

What made us glad?

PROGRESS UNTIL NOW

the updated website

feedback from the user onboardings expected changes based on real user interviews the Ask Fiona section

we're finally talking to users

Product developed

Product features working

Exciting talking to people and them loving our MVP

Having some ladies sign up ladies wanting to use the app actually in real life
